

AIB Bank Financial Management Diploma

NAME _____

DATE _____

This diploma is designed for individuals who are involved in the financial management of their bank, including junior officers up through CEOs, CFOs and other senior officers making key decisions that affect bank profitability. The courses required for this diploma cover the analysis of bank performance, the measurement and management of interest rate risk, and the management of funding, liquidity and capital. The required courses all use the same textbook that provides participants with the basic concepts in each of the areas. Each of the courses includes exercises in which participants apply these concepts to their own institution. Candidates should have an understanding of accounting and financial markets before beginning the required courses. Experience in the use of electronic spreadsheets is helpful but not required.

Required Courses

Students must successfully complete the following courses. No substitutions or previous college credit will be accepted for this diploma.

Any individual who successfully completed at least one of the four banking courses of this diploma program before September 1, 2004 and completes all four courses before December 31, 2007 is eligible to receive this diploma without enrolling in Ethical Issues for Bankers. Individuals who began this program after September 1, 2004 will be required to complete Ethical Issues for Bankers to earn the diploma.

 Students who began the AIB Bank Financial Management Certificate prior to September 1, 2003 are not required to take Managing the Bank's Investment Portfolio.

AIB Diploma Code: 46

Please note that for all students who began work on any AIB Diploma or Certificate on or after September 1, 2004 the new requirements will be enforced. However, to ease this transition, we will allow until December 31, 2007 for all students currently pursuing any diploma or certificate to complete that program under the guidelines that were in place when they began.
